December 30, 1999 (Fundamental Baptist Information Service, P.O. Box 610368, Port Huron, MI 48061, 866-295-4143, wayoflife.org, fbns@wayoflife.org) - The following is from Religion Today, December 29, 1999 --

“Many British clergy doubt the Genesis account of creation. A survey of 103 church leaders showed that 97% say they do not believe the world was created in six days, and 80% do not believe in the existence of Adam and Eve, Conservative News Service said. About 25% said they do not believe in the Virgin Birth, but the majority believe in the Resurrection and the validity of the Ten Commandments. Those surveyed included Roman Catholic and Anglican bishops, and Protestant ministers.”
